

Through innovative products and service, Sinocoredrill has brought its customers the sustainable developed solutions that can improve their productivity. And through the close cooperation with customers and business partners, Sinocoredrill is making continuous innovation for achieving its goal of superior productivity.

Our Technician and manager groups are all with more than ten years' experience on Developing, researching and producing exploration products. Owing to our products' excellent performance and very competitive pricing, we successfully minimized our every customer's drilling cost per meter.

The mission of the company is to provide high-quality drilling equipment that is good value for money and to help the clients to increase their profit in business.

Delivery

Warranty and Service

We always concerned about our clients and provides them with warranty and service support.

The factory ensures equipment warranty for the major assemblies and units efficient for 12 months. The clients are supplied with all needed spare parts, tooling and auxiliary facilities.

The authorized dealers possess service centers to execute product warranty liabilities, after-sales service and equipment repair. The clients' staff is also provided with theoretical and practical company instructions and consultations on all matters concerning execution of work and equipment operation.

